A Note from the President...

I would like to welcome our new members into AAUW-Thousand Oaks. You have joined an amazing group of women doing outstanding work to advance equity for women and girls.

There are many ways new members can take advantage of all that AAUW has to offer. First, there are the Special Interest Groups listed in the Oaktwig. Women in these groups share a common interest in literature, museums and gardens, photography, and more. Joining a group is a great way to make new friends and learn about AAUW. Another way to get involved is to join a committee such as Title IX, Tech Trek, Public Policy or Funds. These areas are the core of our Mission of advancing equity. Of course, new members can volunteer to be on the Board of Directors and help us guide our future. We will be having our elections in May.

There is a lot to consider, especially if you are unfamiliar with our programs. Let me invite you to our New Member Event which will be held before our board meeting on March 10 at the Newbury Park Library Community Room. Our program will start at 6:00 PM. We will be socializing first, so we can all get to know one another. We will have brief overviews of each area of AAUW, followed by a short board meeting. There will also be refreshments served. You will receive an invitation in the mail shortly. I look forward to meeting you in March.

Breaking News!

Donna Langley (l) meeting Dolores Huerta (r), one of our Branch's Women's History notable women, at a CSUCI event in 2013.

AAUW Thousand Oaks Board of Directors congratulates Donna Langley on being chosen as Senator Fran Pavley's 27th District Woman of the Year 2015. Donna was nominated by the board for her many years of dedication to the Branch's Women's History Project and the Profiles of Women series. Senator Pavley will honor Donna at an upcoming event, presenting her with a Certificate of Recognition from the California Senate. Congratulations Donna for all your hard work over the years!

Sad and Glad News Concerning Our Members

from the Sunshine Committee

☀ Sadly and with a heavy heart, we must inform you of the death of Dan Reed, husband of our long-standing member, Berniece, on Friday, February 6, 2015. Dan was stricken with pancreatic cancer a year ago and fought a long, valiant battle for many months.

Berniece devoted herself exclusively to his care and well-being – learning how to give him injections and preparing all of his foods and medicines. Their daughters, Ellen and Sandy, were unfailingly there for him as well. How lucky he was to have them all! Our hearts go out to Berniece and her family at this time of overwhelming sadness.

☀ Betty Nordahl has retired from HRL Laboratories where she was employed for almost 26 years. She held various positions there, all in computer support as an administrator in the Vax Vms, Unix and Linux systems.

She is happily anticipating completing some long overdue projects around the house and venturing into some new areas like Zumba and bible study, taking some pattern-making classes and experimenting with her new embroidery sewing machine.

Welcome, Betty, to the world of the retired, where you can watch the rain from the window of your house rather than the window of your car.

☀ Linda Harley went to Texas for the holidays and while she was there, her hip collapsed. She had to be hospitalized and will have surgery there. She expects to be back sometime in late February or March. We will try to get contact information for her so that those of you who would like to send her your good wishes will be able to do so. In the meantime, we hope Linda will have an uneventful recovery and will be back home very soon.

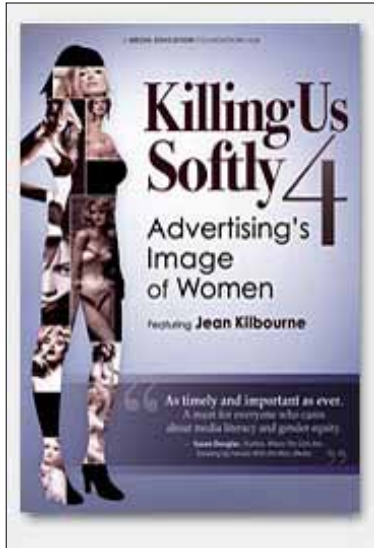

☀ It is with great sadness that we inform you of the death of Myrna Abdel-Gawad on Wednesday, February 4, 2015. She had been ill for some time with an undiagnosed brain tumor and by the time it was discovered and diagnosed, it was too late. She fought it bravely for six months but it was too aggressive to be treated effectively.

Myrna was a member of our Daytime Literature Group who made valuable, insightful contributions to our discussions. Our meetings will be diminished without her. We send our sincere condolences to her family.

If you learn of a newsworthy event concerning you or another Branch member—be it Sad, Glad or merely factual—and you would like to have it published in the Oaktwig, please let us know. The particulars will be included in the forthcoming issue or, for time-sensitive information, will be sent to all Branch members via email. Thanks for keeping us informed!

Please contact Audrey Giuffrida.

In Celebration of International Women's Day Killing Us Softly 4

Thursday, March 5 • 7:00 PM

Richter Hall, California Lutheran University

Join AAUW and CLU's Gender Studies Program for the screening of Killing Us Softly 4, the latest in Jean Kilbourne's award-winning series, which takes a fresh look at American advertising and how women are portrayed. It appears that the more things have changed, the more they've stayed the same.

This film challenges another generation to take advertising seriously and to think critically about its relationship to sexism, eating disorders, gender violence and contemporary politics. Kilbourne uses over 160 print ads and commercials to critique advertising's portrayal of women and invites the audience to look at familiar images in a new way: one that will move and empower viewers to take action. A panel discussion will follow the screening of the film.

For more information, contact Bev Khoshnevisan.

"Jobs of the Future" Program a Success!

"Jobs of the Future" – Our partnership with California Lutheran University on February 10, 2015 was attended by over 100 middle school, high school, and college students, their parents, AAUW Thousand Oaks members, and members of the community.

Nathalie Gosset, EE, MS, MBA Senior Director, Marketing and Technology Innovation Evaluation, Alfred E. Mann Institute for Biomedical Engineering, USC, and AAUW Thousand Oaks Member, showed the audience what the jobs of the future are, what jobs are disappearing and what new jobs are being created. A summary of her talk, "Jobs of the Future," can be viewed at: <http://nathaliegosset.org/e40603bd-267d-4050-8337-7549727f7d3f-1033.html>.

Pat Jacobs, President, Advanced Personnel Profiles Inc., provided an insight into what companies and recruiters are looking for in candidates, especially in the biotech field. For anyone looking for a job, she posts jobs on her website: <http://advancedpersonnelprofiles.com/>.

Vivienne Payne, Ph.D. Scientist, Earth Science Division, Jet Propulsion Laboratory, told the audience what it was really like to work in a science career and what they do at JPL. She spoke of over 700 internships at JPL that are available to students. Additionally, she encouraged students and teachers to visit the education section of the JPL website at <http://www.jpl.nasa.gov/education/> for educational resources as well as the portal to their internships and fellowships. A list of their current and future missions, including their 2020 mission to Mars, are available at: <http://www.jpl.nasa.gov/missions/>.

National Women's History Project and AAUW Thousand Oaks Celebrate Milestones

The idea of a Women's History Week came from five California women* of Santa Rosa, California, who, encouraged by the success of their first two Women's History weeks, took the idea to the Women's History Institute in the summer of 1979. The Institute passed a resolution to create a National Women's History Week and lobbied extensively with state and national officials. In 1980, President Jimmy Carter issued a Presidential Message calling on the American people to remember the extraordinary accomplishments of women during the week of March 2-8, 1980. The NWHP received a grant to establish a teacher training resource that would help teachers incorporate women's history into all grades and subjects. In 1987, Congress expanded the week into the National Women's History Month. Today, after 35 years, Women's History Month is celebrated in hundreds of schools and worksites, from kindergarten classes to retirement communities in every state.

AAUW Thousand Oaks Branch published its first book Profiles of Women Past and Present in 1995, which included scripts about fifteen outstanding women. Today, twenty years later, the Branch has close to 100 scripts written about notable women for use in classrooms and communities throughout the United States and around the world. Thanks to the vision and talent of our Branch members, we have added greatly to the educational resources available about women's achievements.

On March 9, 2015, at the Thousand Oaks Library, the Branch will present its 2015 Women's History Program, featuring scripts written by Branch members about the lives of Maya Angelou, Jane Goodall, Wilma Mankiller, Yoshiko Uchida and Malala Yousafzai. Bring your friends to this outstanding program, which begins at 6:00 PM.

*Molly MacGregor, Paula Hammett, Mary Ruthsdotter, Maria Cuevas and Bette Morgan, Co-Founders of NWHP.

Presenters from One Spark Academy

Women on the Move

Women changing the world can't sit still. As a result, our Profiles of Women Past and Present can be found around the globe. In just the past two years, these women, in the form of 1435 books, have traveled to Alaska, Maryland, Virginia, Colorado, Saudi Arabia and South Africa. Closer to home, they've invaded Thousand Oaks, Camarillo, Carpinteria, Los Angeles, Oxnard, Apple Valley, Kensington and Westlake Village.

More than just covering the miles, these women are touching the minds and hearts of teens in foster homes across the nation (Mystuffbags.org), girls in the inner city of Los Angeles, girls in the Boys and Girls Club "Smart Girls" program and at Girls Inc., along with children in rescue missions and children learning English as a second language.

This speaks volumes to the work of those who created the profiles and those who continue to create profiles about notable women through our Women's History program. Be a part of these women on the move by supporting students portraying them, Monday, March 9, 6:00 PM at the Thousand Oaks Library. In addition, Banyan Elementary School will present on their campus in Newbury Park on Friday, March 20, 1:45 PM and Conejo Elementary School, on their campus in Thousand Oaks on Thursday, April 2, 6:30 PM.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN THE PUBLISHING WORLD?

Saturday, April 11, 2:00 PM

Thousand Oaks Library

More and more people are buying books online for their tablets and e-readers, looking for inexpensive and free books besides buying bestsellers. Other dedicated readers still want a "real book" in their hands. What does this mean for writers and readers?

Plus, have you ever considered publishing your own work without going through a publishing company (which may take a lot of time). What are your options?

We are excited to have a panel of authors from the Central Coast Chapter of Sisters in Crime speak to us about what's happening in the publishing world. Among them they have written an extensive collection of mystery and suspense novels and have dealt with the changes. Come hear what the writers have to say.

The authors on our panel will be:

- Sue McGinty -- author of the Bella Kowalski mystery series taking place in the unique and funky towns on the Pacific beach. She will speak on the "Create Space Experience."
- Tony Piazza -- mystery writer, film historian, and veteran storyteller. Also an actor and stand-in for movies and television, he has appeared in the films Magnum Force, Towering Inferno, and others. Tony will speak on "Indie Publishing for the E-book Generation."
- Susan Tuttle -- author of suspense novels, and winner of the indie B.R.A.G. Medallion. Her work is available in both print and digital form. She conducts weekly "Write it Right" writing group classes. She is past president of SLO NightWriters and the Central Coast Chapter of Sisters in Crime. Susan will speak on "E-book Formatting and How to Self-edit Your Work for Publication."
- Barbara Hodges -- author or co-author of nine novels and the fantasy series Daradawn. She also hosts a monthly program "No Limits," on Blog Talk Radio, where she talks with those involved in the field of writing. Barbara will speak about "The Importance of Social Media and the Promotion in the E-age."

Join us for this fun and informative event!

Museums and Gardens Group: Spring is the Best Time to See Descanso Gardens!

All Branch members are in for a very special treat as the Museums and Gardens Group carpools over to the amazing Descanso Gardens in La Canada for an hour-long docent tour of this wonderful blooming historical garden. There is always something new to see at this popular venue including blooming cherry trees in the gorgeous Japanese Garden, giant camellias and azaleas, springtime bulbs, lilacs, the Oak Woodland, and California natives all laid out in clearly identified paths. The Boddy House will be open and has a spectacular view from its location high above the gardens. We will have a lovely outdoor lunch at the Museum Café before spending more time strolling these amazing gardens on our own.

Many members have visited Descanso Gardens over the years, but since several people haven't been there in "years," it was decided by popular request that this would be the perfect opportunity! So, mark your calendar and join us for Friday, March 27. We will meet at about 9:00 AM at the Barnes and Noble Bookstore in Westlake. Your cost is $10 for the admission and tour, the cost of your own lunch, and a share of the gas costs to the driver of your carpool. Rain cancels, but trip will be rescheduled.

Please also mark your calendars for two more wonderful trips. On Wednesday, April 29, we'll travel to the Santa Barbara Art Museum for the special exhibit, "Botticelli, Titian and Beyond: Masterpieces from the Glasgow Museum." On Wednesday, May 20, we'll visit the recently restored Hollyhock House at Barnsdall Park in Hollywood. Designed by Frank Lloyd Wright, the house is now listed as a National Historic Landmark and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Members who can assist with driving are always very appreciated!

All members are welcome to join in these outings. You don't need to have signed up earlier or been on any other trip. If you are new to our Branch, this is a great way to meet some of our friendly members. Join us and please let Sally Hibbitts know that you are able to attend.

Great Gift Ideas from AAUW

Do you have a hard-to-buy-for person on your gift list? We've got three great ideas for you!

How about a box of beautiful note cards, created by local women artists? Each box of eight is $10.00 or you can buy individual cards for $2.00 each. We can also assemble a special box of eight of your favorite cards.

For the history or theater buff on your list, give one or all three volumes of Profiles of Women: Past & Present. Created by members of our Branch, each volume provides well-written monologues showing women as positive role models.

The gifts above help provide fellowships and scholarships through AAUW Funds. Contact Kateri Alexander.

Finally, give the gift of membership! Sign up a family member or friend to join the Thousand Oaks Branch of AAUW. She/he gets a great gift and you get a friend with whom you can attend Branch events. Win/Win! Contact Judi Robinson.

Fifty Years: 1966-2016

Are you a planner? A thespian? A writer? A musician? An artist? A (fun)draiser? A new member? A long-time member? A group of members will meet to explore and discuss ideas for celebrating our Branch's upcoming 50th anniversary (April 2016).

If you are interested in participating with the planning of this event, please email Wendy Hoffman or Jeanette Hosek and you will be contacted when a meeting date is set. Lots of ideas are needed, spread the word!

Next committee meeting will be Wednesday, March 4, 6:30 PM at Wendy Hoffman's home.

Looking for a Phone Number?

If you're seeking contact information for people leading various Branch activities, please see page 12 of this newsletter. The Oaktwig is now being published on our Branch website, aauwto.org, without our members' personal information. The "Contact Page" will NOT appear on our website.

AAUW to Assist with 2015 Special Olympics World Games' Activities in Thousand Oaks

The City of Thousand Oaks has been selected as an official Host City for a group of the fine athletes who will be competing in the 2015 Special Olympics World Games in Los Angeles. For the three days preceding the Opening Ceremonies, Thousand Oaks and other towns and cities across Southern California will hold social events to welcome delegations of Special Olympians from around the world. The athletes will be housed in the dorms at California Lutheran University and various activities will be held at that time including a community picnic, BBQ and dance. Our AAUW Branch will be assisting with some of the host city activities prior to the actual competition dates.

This is a great opportunity for AAUW members to share in this very important event and help show a warm welcome to these international visitors. Please contact either Sally Hibbits or the Branch committee chair, Annette Broersma.

The first organizational committee meeting will be on Monday, March 23, 5:30 PM at Annette Broersma's home.

Special Interest Groups

One of the privileges of Branch membership is the opportunity to participate in one or more of our special interest groups. Any member is welcome to join as many as are of interest. If you would like to initiate a new interest group, please contact Narda prior to the 10th of the month preceding your event. It will be listed in the next Oaktwig, to advertise and recruit members who would like to help start or join the new group. Contact Narda Fargotstein.

Coffee and Chat NOTE NEW LOCATION

Meets the 1st Saturday of every month. We meet at 9:00 AM at Stella's Gourmet Restaurant, 2385 Michael Drive, Newbury Park. (Directions: Take 101 to Borchard Road Exit. Take a right on Michael and go past Baskin Robbins. Turn right into the parking lot to Stella's.) This is a very pleasant way to get acquainted and stay connected. We hope you will be able to join us. For further information, contact Narda Fargotstein.

Daytime Literature Group We invite you to join us for a lively discussion on the 4th Monday of each month (unless indicated by *) at 10:00 AM in the Marvin Smith Community Room at the Thousand Oaks Library on Janss Road. For more information, please contact Jeane Rose.

Our upcoming schedule:

March 23: The Timekeeper by Mitch Albom

April 27: The River of Doubt by Candice Millard

May 18: Where'd You Go Bernadette? by Maria Semple

Evening Literature Group

The Evening Literature Group meets the 3rd Thursday of the month at 7:30 PM (unless indicated by *) at different members' homes. Please join us - everyone is welcome. For more information, please contact Ellen Kossoris or Sharon Dyer.

Our upcoming schedule:

March 19: Defending Jacob by William Landay

April 16: Death Comes for the Archbishop by Willa Cather

May 15: The Assistant by Bernard Malamun

Exploring Religions of the World Through the Eyes of Women (NEW)

We will meet 3 or 4 times over the year in someone's home. Each time we meet, our hope is to invite a woman with a particular religious background to facilitate an open and nonjudgmental discussion with the group.

On Monday, March 16 at 6:30 PM, our guest speaker will be Brocha Sapochkinsky, an Orthodox Jewish woman. We will enjoy an open discussion with her and find out what it's like to be a practicing Orthodox Jewish woman in these times. Space is limited, so please let us know if you will be attending. If you reserve a space and then find you are unable to attend, please let us know as there is a waiting list. Contact Wendy Hoffman or Jeanette Hosek.

Global Awareness and Action for Girls (GAAG) (NEW)

Primary focus will be on projects assisting adolescent girls living outside the U.S. who have difficulties obtaining an education. Members can suggest projects they are currently aware of or look into future projects. Contact Jeanette Hosek if interested.

Joyful Volunteering Group

Celebrate the gift of giving time! This group is designed to give our members an opportunity to help make lives better for women through involvement with other volunteer groups. To add new energy and to further reach out this coming year, Joyful Volunteering participants are being asked to please choose a month to come up with an idea for service that will make a difference in the community. This way, new avenues will be explored and the group will continue on a positive road. New participants are always welcome! Please contact Gail Small about the joy you can contribute by volunteering!

Morning Walking Group

Meets every Thursday at 7:15 AM rain or shine for a moderate walk, approximately 45 minutes. We meet inside by the Cheesecake Factory in the Oaks Mall. Some of the group continue on for coffee and to do crossword puzzles. Contact Claudia Spelman.

The Movie Ladies of Fame Group

If you are interested in having your name (partners, too) added to either/both Interest Groups--Movie and/or Theatre--please contact Linda Harley. If no answer, do leave a message: please speak slowly and clearly. Thank you!

Museums and Gardens

The Museums and Gardens Group visits a variety of beautiful museums and gardens on a different day each month, depending upon venue location and member response. If you'd like to take part, contact Sally Hibbits.

Friday, March 27: Descanso Gardens, La Canada. Meet at 9:00 AM at Barnes & Noble Bookstore in Westlake. (see page 8)

Wednesday, April 29: Santa Barbara Art Museum, Santa Barbara

Wednesday, May 20: Hollyhock House, Barnsdall Park, Hollywood

Photography Group

Meets the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 10:00 AM. We are "budding" photographers who meet once a month to learn about our digital cameras and how to take the "perfect" picture and have lots of fun along the way. Contact Wendy Hoffman.

Theater Play Productions Group (NEW)

Members will attend weekend productions at local venues such as Conejo Players Theater in Thousand Oaks, the High Street Arts Center in Moorpark and Simi Valley Community Arts Center. Husbands/partners are invited to participate as well. Contact Linda Harley.
